There is designated Blue Badge parking on South Church Side. There is also a multistory car park and further on street parking on Marketplace. Mini-buses can drop off outside the building.

The nearest bus stops (500m away) are on Monument Bridge (1, 1C, 55, 55A, 63, 66, 66B, 152, 153, 154) going towards the station, other bus routes available from Alfred Gelder Street (going to East Hull) or Bond Street (to West Hull).

Hull Railway station is 0.6 miles/1.0km away.

The ground floor is mostly level access apart from the Victorian laundry which is down a flight of steps and the storytelling area, which is up a flight of steps. These are both at the far end of the Victorian gallery. Access to the Education room and lift is via a ramp.

Assistance dogs are welcome

BSL interpretation is available for talks and tours

An Accessible Toilet is available on the first floor near the lift and stairs.

Our nearest Changing Places Toilet is at Trinity Market (80m away)

Baby Change facilities are available in the accessible toilet.

Please note;

- South Church side is a cobbled street.
- The Victorian laundry downstairs and the Mummy room are darker areas of the museum.
- The Story of Hull and It's People gallery follows a route with lots of turns.
- A visual story and full accessibility guide are available on our website www.hullmuseums.co.uk
